HARVARD WILL MATCH VALE WITH TEAM OF VETERANS AT STADIUM

(Special from United Press.)
Boston, Oct. 20.—Harvard isn't a bit scared over the glowing reports that come from the Yale football camp.
The same reports were heard last year and yet when the crimson met the blue at New Haven, the former was victorious by a score of 4 to 0. With the exception of possibly three players, Harvard expects to meet the same blue team that faced her last year and to have the slight advantage of playing the crucial game on home grounds.
Of the championship team of last year Harvard has eight players left, Withington, West, Corbett, Mackay, Leslie, Fish, Brown and Smith. So it will be a team of veterans against a team of veterans. With Haughton again to whip the Harvard team into shape the student body can't see but Harvard has a splendid opportunity to repeat her victory of last year and break the football precedent against consecutive Harvard victories.
It is true that Harvard will be without the services this year of Cutler, Kennard and Verweib, the three men responsible for the defeat of Yale last year. Cutler's generalship at quarterback, Verweib's line boring that brought the ball within striking distance of the Yale goal and the tactical introduction of Kennard into the game just in time to take advantage of the situation and kick a goal from the field, were the features in Harvard's victory.
But in place of these men Harvard has O'Flaherty at quarter, who to-day gives much better promise than Cutler did, and at the same time Vicker and Mintz, the two backs who are showing good form and who should easily prove as efficient as Kennard and Verweib, are talked of.

COMMENDATION FOR O'ROURKE

(New Haven Palladium.)
The vote passed by the Connecticut league directors, making Secretary O'Rourke's job worth $500 a year, is a commendable one and should have been passed years ago.
The position should pay $1,000 and if there is a team owner in the league that should receive any consideration for his work it is James H. O'Rourke, Sr., who organized the State League and who has year after year kept the league from going to pieces. Mr.
O'Rourke has worked hard and soul for clean baseball and will work just as far for good ball the coming season as he always has.

COY IS STAR OF FAST PLAY

In the fastest practice scrimmage of the season, the Yale varsity with second string men on it, tore great holes through the defense of the scrib team at Yale field yesterday afternoon and scored four touchdowns and a drop kick. A large share of the scoring, and plays leading up to it, were the direct result of good work by Captain Coy. He alternated at full back with Field, first one then the other playing. The ball was given to the varsity during almost all of the twenty-five minute scrimmage. The coaches are now giving attention to the scoring and offensive power of the team more than to the defense, which has been up to standard to date.
The work of Coy was the nearest and the most effective seen on the field this year. He made some excellent forward passes, a good side kick and some good runs with the ball. He made one run of seventy yards for a tally.

MR. AND MRS. CAPPS ENTERTAIN VIRTUOSO

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Capps entertained Frank LaForge last evening, the talented pianist with Mme. Sembrich. Mr. LaForge was formerly with Gadsdill. It is said that quite a struggle for his services ensued between Sembrich and Gadsdill. Mr. La-Forge was much pleased with his reception by a Bridgeport audience.

Hysteria Over Yale's Eleven

Something akin to hysteria over Yale's team has arisen since the Elis trounced West Point, but at New Haven they regard the situation more calmly and critically. Smooth sailing to a championship isn't insured by a midseason victory which happened to be bigger than expected. A slight slip here and there in a couple of Yale's forward passes might easily have made the score 6 to 0 instead of 17 to 0. Shevlin's team stung West Point 20 to 0, but had the time of its life beating Harvard 8 to 6. Harvard and Princeton haven't disbanded in terror.
Rating this year's team with Gordon Brown's 1900 eleven as a mighty scoring machine is premature. Then too Chadwick's 1902 team, which effectually wiped out the recollection of a Waterloo the year before, is a more recent example for the present aggregation to pattern after. Are the Elis ends this year as good as Shevlin and Rafferty, or the tackles as a pair the towers of strength of Hogan and Kinney? There isn't a center now at Yale the equal of Holt, but the guards compare favorably with Glass and Goss, and Glass that year was in a class by himself. As swift, reliable halfbacks, exceptionally adept at taking an opening, Chadwick and Metcalf were great. Coy, of course, lays way over Bowman, but there is a lot to be done before the renown of Rockwell at quarterback is dimmed. This year's team is as good as Chadwick or Brown's? It may be, but it has a distance to go to get there.

CONNECTICUT NOT NAME ALL LEAGUERS LIKE

PROPOSITION MAY BE MADE TO FIND COGNOMEN SHOWING IN-TERSTATE SCOPE OF BASEBALL ORGANIZATION.
In addition to the salary question and other interesting facts which were not brought up at the meeting of the Connecticut League directors, but discussed after the adjournment was a project to change the name of the organization. The suggestion for a new name will be brought up by the Massachusetts representatives at the next meeting of the three managers in that territory do not think the present title accurately describes the scope of the league. Manager Zeller of Springfield and Manager Edwards of Northampton are strongly in favor of a new name and adopting some title that will show the league to comprise more than one state. It will require a majority vote of the directors to change the name, and the Massachusetts men do not know how their Connecticut brethren will stand on the point, but do not figure there will be any objections as it would be for the benefit of the league as a whole, to let the baseball world know the organization is not a one state affair.

BOWLING.

The local State League bowlers were made the ninth team last evening and consequently laid off. Three of the teams made perfect scores. New Haven, Hartford and Meriden, the teams respectively going under being Wallingford, Bristol and Stamford. Waterbury took two of the three from Middletown.

New Haven made a great record against Wallingford, totaling 2848 pin falls. They totaled 541 points more than the defeated five. Upon of New Haven was high was 608. The score:

Easy picking for the Senators at home with Bristol, three games going the Hartford way. Taylor for Hartford bowled two strings of 200 and 205.
He relieved Burnham. The score: Hartford, ..... 825 815 828-2468
Bristol, ..... 739 700 710-2149

Middletown won the first string from Waterbury last evening, but fell down on the other two. Highby of the winners and Scoville of Middletown were tied for high honors at 557. The score:
Waterbury, ..... 850 833 873-2606
Middletown, ..... 587 815 815-2545

Slight opposition was put up by the Stamfords at Meriden, the latter winning all three strings. Beecher of Stamford was high with 572, having two strings of 212 and 210. The score:

Middletown Game Put Over to Friday

The Middletown High School football team will not play in this city Saturday afternoon against the local High school as was at first originally planned, but the game will be transferred to Middletown and will be played on Wesle-yian Field on Friday, which is a holiday, which is Teacher's Convention.
Last season when the local lads played in Middletown, the boys were rushed off the field, as the Wesleyan College players desired to use the field. In order not to ruin the reputation of the same again this season, Middletown was scheduled to play two games in this city this season. As both schools have this Friday off, it is deemed advisable to play the game in Middletown. Those who had procured tickets for the contest can use them on the following Saturday when the Hartford team will be here for the first Interscholastic league contest. Following that game New Britain will make her appearance here.

ITALY PREPARES FOR CZAR'S VISIT

(Special from United Press.)
Rome, Oct. 20.—Scores of Italian subjects are being deported from their homes so that King Emmanuel may entertain Czar Nicholas with as much safety as he can. The police to-day are evicting families from their residences in all neighborhoods that the Czar and his host may visit in order to be sure that no Terrorists can work in the houses. The houses will be occupied by secret service men.
Altogether about 12,000 soldiers and police have been concentrated in Rome and its environs, and at Racconigi, where it is announced the Czar and Victor Emmanuel will meet. In addition to this, the number of Russian secret service men has been augmented and to-day fully one-half the people in the streets of Rome are officials of one kind or another. It is believed that after the Czar visits Racconigi he will accompany the King on a visit to Messina where at the time of the earthquake disaster, the Czar's sailors did heroic service.

Weather Indications

(Special from United Press.)
New Haven, Oct. 20.—Forecast: fair and warmer tonight; Thursday, increasing cloudiness and warmer.
The high pressure area that was centered in the upper lake region yesterday morning is now over the lower lake region and the middle Atlantic states while a disturbance that appeared off the North Pacific coast has advanced to the eastward to North Dakota. Rain has fallen during the last 24 hours over the northern districts west of the Rocky Mountains, and the freezing temperatures were reported this morning from most stations in New England.
Conditions favor for this vicinity fair weather tonight and increasing cloudiness Thursday with rising temperature.

WALL STREET TO-DAY.

New York, Oct. 20.—Irregularity in price movements marked the opening of the stock market with the leading issues generally showing fractional declines. A number of specialties including Rock Island showed some advance. Steel Common was again under pressure but quickly recovered.
It is a—The market was undecided and uncertain all through the first hour with a majority of retreating issues selling at fractional concessions.
A few specialties were decidedly strong, being marked up without apparent reason. Wabash and Southern Railway were both strong. Steel Common continued under pressure but recovered slightly toward the close of the hour.
Government bonds unchanged; other bonds steady.

HARTFORD MAN GRAND PATRIARCH

G. Herbert Peck Chosen by Grand Encampment I. O. O. F.

New Haven, Oct. 20.—At the annual session of the grand encampment, I.
O. O. F., of Connecticut, the report of William S. Hutchison, grand scribe, for the six months from July 1, 1908, to January 1, 1909, showed a $88 in membership of 42. The total number of encampments is 12 and the total membership on July 1, 1908, was 4,278.
Election of the following officers took place: Grand patriarch, G. Herbert Peck, Hartford, grand high priest, Karl L. Winter, Waterbury; senior grand warden, Frank M. Canfield, Bridgeport; grand scribe, William S.
Hutchison, New Haven; grand treasurer, William J. Berges, Stamford; grand representative to the sovereign encampment, E. Benajah Pratt, Chesire.

The only contest was on the election of a junior grand warden, for which office three candidates were in the field, Samuel Prince, New London, Clinton G. Buck, Winsted, and William Schaeffer, New Britain. Prince was elected.

Its size considered, Belgium is the greatest horse-breeding country in the world. It has an estimated equine population of 300,000 on an area about equal to Maryland.

Painful Dyspepsia

A Form of Indigestion Caused by Gastric Irritation from Undigested Food in the Stomach No kind of dyspepsia it better marked than that known as "painful indigestion," and it is also a very common affection. Pain, which is of a dull character, is felt after meals, and along with the pain, soreness at the pit of the stomach often exists, and in some cases the soreness is permanent.
The tenderness is commonly restricted to a spot in the middle line of the abdomen, immediately below the breast-bone.
It often extends upward under the bone, which consequently feels sore on pressure, and the tenderness is felt toward either side. This tenderness is commonly associated with an unpleasant feeling of heat—"a burning sensation"—as it is termed by some persons. There is also a "gnawing" and "dragging," as well as various other anomalous sensations complained of by the patient, and generally within an hour after eating.
As might be supposed the intensity of the symptom is proportionate to the quantity and quality of the meal.
When the stomach is empty, a sensation of craving or emptiness gives most trouble. This often causes a false appetite, which, by inducing the person to eat heartily aggravates the sufferings. Thirst generally causes much anxiety; heartburn, water-brash, acidity, nausea, and headache are not infrequent attendants. The tongue is usually coated and from a mere inspection of this organ the condition of the stomach can often be correctly told.

It is a common error with persons who are afflicted with painful dyspepsia to use such drugs as chlorodyne, Hoffman's Anodyne, and other pain killers for its relief. Such treatment is a great mistake. While these drugs afford temporary relief to the dyspep-tic pain, they have no effect whatever in removing the cause.
STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS remove the cause. By completely digesting all the food in the stomach, which is accompanied by pain cured through the use of these digestive tablets, but also every other form of indigestion, as there are many kinds in which stomach pain does not occur, but where there are many symptoms equally disagreeable, discomforting, disconcerting and disturbing.
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain in a highly concentrated form, powerful anti-dyspeptic ingredients, which digest rapidly and thoroughly food of every kind, including proteins, nitrates, carbo-hydrates, etc. A single grain will disintegrate and digest 3,000 grains of food.

Purchase a box from your druggist at once (price 50 cents), and get rid of the pain, discomfort and other disagreeable symptoms of dyspepsia. Also

ROUSING RALLY IN SEVENTH DISTRICT

Archibald McNeil, Jr., Makes Ringing Speech.

ALDERMANIC NOMINEE GREETED

The Democrats of the Seventh district fired the first gun of the local campaign last night, at Main and Fulton streets. An enthusiastic gathering of Seventh district voters listened to speeches.

District Chairman Morrissey presided. The hall was packed.
Attorney William W. Bent spoke of the work that is being done to perfect the Democratic organization throughout the city, and urged Democrats to aid Post Chairman Kenny in the formation of a strong Democratic Association. Mr. Bent was applauded.

Tax Collector John M. Donnelly was warmly greeted. He spoke of the deplorable condition of the streets, and pointed out the condition that existed in the Seventh district, especially the disgraceful state of Main street which runs through part of the Seventh district.
Archibald McNeil, Jr., was introduced as the son of one of the foremost Democrats in the United States. Mr.
McNeil said: "While I was born and raised in the heart of the Seventh district, I have been voting since I have attained my majority, in that district which is known as the stronghold of Republicanism, and while we have worked for the promotion of Democracy in the district, the prospects of success were not very promising and it is indeed a pleasure for me to again take up my residence in a district where I feel I have so many friends and in which I know there exists that strong feeling of Democracy that gladdens the hearts of all true lovers of Jeffersonian principles. You have nominated as your candidate for Alderman in this district a young man who is known throughout the district as an enterprising, energetic and hard working Democrat. No more popular nomination could have been made, and I predict that the voters of the Seventh district will roll up a majority for James P. Conlin." Mr. McNeil was applauded.

Alderman Carroll stated that he was not a candidate for renomination, but that he appreciated the support that the district had given him during his term in the council, and in retiring he felt that the district had acted wisely in the selection of its candidate for Alderman of James P. Conlin.
Mr. Conlin was then introduced, and stated that he had not come to the gathering for the purpose of making a speech, but was content to listen to the remarks of those who were better qualified to discuss the questions of the campaign than he. He urged the voters of the district to perfect an organization that would present a formidable front. He promised, if elected as the representative of the Seventh district, to the Common Council, to be at all times the servant of that constituency, and to work and vote in the interest of the citizens of Bridgeport. The conclusion of Mr. Conlin's remarks, City Clerk Edward T.
Buckingham entered the hall and was warmly greeted and cheered as the next Mayor of Bridgeport.

WOOD PULP ON FREE LIST IS ONLY SOLUTION

(Special from United Press.) Chicago, Oct. 20.—That the placing of wood pulp on the free list is the only solution to the impending trade war between the United States and Canada caused by the new print paper and wood pulp tariff incorporated in the new tariff law, is the belief of John Norris, chairman of the standing committee on print paper of the American Publishers Association here.
Norris declared that only a free schedule for print paper and pulp would now be accepted by the Canadians.
"Had the $2 duty been fixed when the tariff bill was in the making," he said, "Canada would have accepted it but now the Canadian people are aroused and they believe that with the United States seeking for a duty they will pull the $500,000,000 invested in this country in paper making properties over into Canada." The convention endorsed a letter of protest to President Taft.

Leckerling Pianos

Leckerling Pianos are instruments of unquestioned merit and popularity. Found extensively in the homes of well-to-do people, they occupy a position of prominence and respect. Leckerling Pianos have gained their marvelous prestige solely on their merits. They were never advertised to any extent.
It is safe to say that without advertising no piano has been sold so extensively as the Leckerling. This fact is a powerful tribute to its good qualities. It is surely an extraordinary instrument. The Leckerling is a high-class piano. The style "Forty," finished in mahogany, is a magnificent instrument. Price, $325.
$10 down and $7 per month will send one home.
